

Figure 3: Images of potential induced due to silver wire as control. The images do not have a significant change over 10 days indicating the change observed in the root images is due to the root growth.